COUNCIL FAILED TO PASS TAX LEVY

Unable to Suspend Rules to Place it Upon Second Reading Because of One Negative Vote.

APPROPRIATIONS HELD UP

Primary Assessment Rolls For Improvement of Ewing and South Walnut Streets Filed.

A big surprise was sprung at the regular council meeting Thursday night when two of the councilmen blocked the passage of the ordinances fixing the tax levy and the appropriations for the various departments of the city by voting against the suspension of rules so that the two ordinances could be placed upon second reading. Under the law the tax levy for the coming year and also the appropriation must be made during the month of September, and it was part of the schedule to put them through last night. The council held a special session Tuesday night when the tax levy and appropriations were decided upon and it was expected that the ordinance would be passed last night.

W. R. Day introduced the ordinance fixing the tax levy at $1.40 and it was moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinance placed on second reading. In order to suspend the rules an unanimous vote in the affirmative is required and all of the council men voted in favor of it with the exception of Buse, and his vote was sufficient to block the ordinance.

Unless the council passes the ordinance by Monday night, the tax levy of the present year will stand. It is known that Council Buse is opposed to the proposed new levy, which was agreed upon Tuesday night, and he stated last night that he was in favor of allowing the old levy to stand for the coming year. If this is done it will be necessary to issue bonds instead of a temporary loan, and Buse is radically opposed to the temporary loan.

The second ordinance which was blocked in the same manner was the one introduced by Buse later in the evening fixing the appropriations for the various city departments for next year. He moved that the rules be suspended and his ordinance placed on second reading, and all of the councilmen voted in the affirmative with the exception of Taskey, who declared that he did not see the need of making the appropriation when there was no money to appropriate. The council will meet again tonight when the two ordinances will be taken up and in the meantime some settlement may be agreed upon. It is hardly probable that the appropriation ordinance will not be passed for without it none of the councilmen or any other city officers would receive pay for the coming year.

The appropriation ordinance as agreed upon at the special meeting and introduced last night provides for the various departments as follows:

Salaries $4,500; police $2,700; fire department $3,000; street department $8,000; contagious diseases $200; garbage $1,000; park $300; water

REPUBLICAN MEETING

Committeeman and Candidates Discussed Campaign Plans.

A number of republican precinct committeemen and candidates on the county ticket met at Brownstown this afternoon to discuss plans for the campaign. Quite a number from here went down, and a report from Brownstown this afternoon stated that the county was well represented. The republicans will likely have a number of prominent speakers here before election day and arrangements are being made to advertise the meetings and fix the dates of the speakings.

Merrill Moores, a well known Indianapolis attorney, and Rollin Turner, of Greensburg, candidate for congress on the republican ticket, were here today and went to Brownstown to attend the meeting. They will make addresses and will assist the local committee in completing arrangements. A number of plans are being considered which will result in strengthening the republican party in this county.

MORE FROST PREDICTED

No Damage Reported by Light Frost Last Night.

The weather man "came through" with his prediction for frost last night and being encouraged by his success makes another prediction of the same character tonight. The temperature dropped to thirty-seven degrees above zero some time during the night. This is the lowest temperature reported this fall.

Frost was generally reported over the county but it is not believed that much damage was done. A few more days will complete the tomato season in this county and it would take a heavy frost to do much damage to the late corn.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN

William Strassburger Meets With Painful Accident.

William Strassburger, who resides on a farm in Redding township met with a painful accident Thursday afternoon while working about the barn. He was using a chain with a lever and while pulling on it, the chain snapped and he was thrown with much force to the ground. In falling he struck on his arm and shoulder in such a way that his collar bone was broken.

After the accident he drove to this city where his injuries were given attention. Although his injuries are painful it is not regarded as serious.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR SHORT COURSE

Farmers Met With Commercial Club Thursday Night to Make Preliminary Arrangements.

TICKETS WILL BE ISSUED SEE IMPORTANCE OF ECONOMY

Organization is Perfected and Chairmen of the Various Committees Are Selected.

At the meeting of the Commercial Club and the farmers at the court room in the city building Thursday night, it was decided to hold the Farmers' Short Course offered by Purdue University. Quite a number of farmers of this county and also of Bartholomew county were present and seemed to be much interested in the proposition. The date of the short course has not been set, but it will probably be month or so before it is given. A representative of the extension department of Purdue will be here Monday at which time the plans will be more definitely considered. After some discussion it was decided to effect an organization for the purpose of making arrangements for the short course. O. E. Carter was selected as president, Clark B. Davis secretary and Charles Roeger treasurer.

Louis Wright, Nathan Newsom and Clark Thomas, of Bartholomew county, were present and gave some very valuable suggestions. The short course has been held in that county and was most successful. It was decided to have tickets printed and these will be distributed among the people in the county for sale. It is believed that sufficient money can be secured from the sale of these tickets to pay the expenses of the short course. The men who attended the meeting agreed to sell two hundred tickets and it is expected that several hundred more will be distributed as soon as they are printed.

The farmers are expecting the short course to be one of the best meetings ever held in this city and are willing to exert every effort to make it a success. Under all probability the regular farmers' institute will not be held here this winter as the short course will take the place of the institute. The short course will be well advertised all over the county, and arrangements will be made to accommodate a large number of farmers and their families here while it is in session.

It may be necessary to have four or five rooms for the different lectures and demonstrations, and the Commercial Club agreed to get a list of available meeting places and these will be inspected by the Purdue representative Monday.

Practically every department on the farm will be given attention at the short course, and the lectures will be given by instructors who have given special attention to their work. The various departments will be in charge of different committees as it is believed that more interest can be created than if one committee had charge of the entire course. The

BOND ISSUE MAYBE ONLY WAY OUT OF IT

Council Will Be Left With "Hobson's Choice" In Providing Means to Meet Big Indebtedness.

REPRESENTED DISTRICT

At Meeting Tonight an Effort May Be Made to Slice Appropriations if Present Levy Stands.

The blocking of the ordinance fixing the tax levy for the coming year is of more than usual importance as it effects directly the bond issue and the temporary loan question. The majority of the council had virtually agreed upon a temporary loan and it was with this in view that the new tax levy was made. Councilman Buse, who voted against the suspension of rules in order to place the ordinance upon the second reading, has declared all along that he was opposed to the temporary loan and believed that the bond issue would be more advisable.

The majority of the councilmen did not agree with Mr. Buse, but it now appears that he holds the key to the situation and that he may be able to force the bond issue whether the majority of the council are in favor of it or not.

The law provides that the levy and the appropriation for the various departments of the city must be made during the month of September. Unless the ordinance is passed by Monday night, the old tax levy will stand which means that the bonds will be issued. Under the present levy the city would not receive sufficient money to pay off the indebtedness if temporary loans were made.

At the council meeting last night Mayor Swope indicated by one statement that he was in favor of a bond issue and would prefer that the old levy stand rather than increase it as was proposed. It is further stated that the mayor would very likely veto the ordinance for an increased levy if one should be made. However, he had made no public announcement of this fact.

The councilmen who are opposed to the bond issue point out that the city has no indebtedness which could be paid off if there is a surplus left in the treasury, and this is one of the reasons why they prefer a temporary loan. If the bond issue is made, as it now seems probable it will be, the bonds will likely run for not less than five years which will increase the bonded indebtedness several thousand dollars making a debt which cannot be entirely lifted for years to come. The bonded indebtedness at the present time is $31,000.

Some of the councilmen realize that the coming year must be conducted along the most economic lines for if no other course is adopted the city would be on the verge of bankruptcy. They believe that if the temporary loan is made the councilmen would be more careful of the general expenditures, as they would be constantly confronted by the big debt and would be more anxious to pay it off as soon as they could in order that the interest could be saved.

It is said that some of the members

VETERAN KILLED.

Isiah Phipps, of Mitchell, Instantly Killed By Freight Train.

Isiah Phipps, of Mitchell, was instantly killed Thursday morning by a freight train in that place. He was known in this city.

The Bedford Mail has the following account of the fatal accident:

Isiah Phipps, of Mitchell, a veteran of the Civil War, was instantly killed at Mitchell this morning at 10:15 o'clock by a Monon freight train that was heading into a switch. The old man, who resides in the north part of Mitchell, was walking down town along the track when the fatal accident occurred.

It is supposed that as he was on the side track he heard the train approaching but did not get clear of the track thinking that the train was coming along the main track. The freight headed into the switch and he was knocked for a considerable distance and instantly killed. The accident occurred in the north yards of the city.

He was 72 years of age and was widely known in the county. During the Civil War he served in Company A Twenty-fourth Indiana Infantry. He is survived by the widow and one brother, B. A. Biggs, of this city, is a brother-in-law. Mr. Biggs went to Mitchell this afternoon.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

REPRESENTED DISTRICT

D. W. Wilson Home From National G. A. R. Encampment.

D. W. Wilson returned home Thursday night from Los Angeles, Cal., where he attended the National Encampment of the G. A. R. At the last encampment he was selected as one of the two delegates from the Fourth congressional district and was the only representative from this district present. The other delegate was unable to attend. He said that the veterans had a fine meeting and that the Los Angeles people treated the visitors royally.

Mr. Wilson enjoyed a very pleasant trip while away and passed through much of the scenic part of the West. On his trip to California he visited Arizona and New Mexico and returning visited Salt Lake City and Pueblo.

MUTUAL AND RECIPROCAL.
Three elements will combine to insure success in November for the Party of Protection: the farm, the factory and the home. The combination has never been beaten. Each depends upon the unabated value of American products and American industry, and the unabated value of these commodities depends in turn upon the home, the factory and the farm. Not only mutual, but reciprocal you see.

Every manufacturer should call his employees about him and tell them frankly what he and they stand to lose if, by the introduction of a policy of Free Trade, the American market is thrown open to the cheaply made wares of Europe. Then, if they vote themselves out of their jobs or for lower wages, the fact will be brought home to them that they have nobody to blame but themselves.

Best to strangle Free Trade at its second revival, lest we suffer a repetition of the penalty we paid in national privation and suffering, following the Cleveland regime and the era of foreign imports, stagnant business and idleness.

Remember, the gates of industrial opportunity and expansion can be barred only by the bolts of Free Trade.

Some of the members of the council evidently believe that the coming year will be an expensive one for the city. They hesitate to vote for the increased tax levy, as approved by the majority of the council, and it appears to an outsider that they fear that the expenses will be so heavy that at the end of the year none of the indebtedness would have been paid. The average business men who borrows money wants his loans in such a condition that he can lift them whenever he has the money to do so. Of course a bond issue will throw the responsibility upon the next council for it will be left the problem of paying them. The cry of economy is well taken but some of the councilmen to whom the people entrusted the welfare of the city, have been unable to hear it.

Governor Marshall declared that he was the tail to the kite. Doubtless Governor Wilson would much prefer the box kite plan so no tail would be needed.

KILKENNY CATS.

Doubtless you have read Dean Swift's gentle satire to the Kilkenney cats?

According to the veracious chronicler two pugnacious felines met in fatal conflict and, urged on by malevolence and fury, continued the fight until they ate each other up, leaving—if one may add pun to humor—nothing to tell the tale save their two tails.

Historically the story is true.

Scientifically there may be some reason for doubting the details. One may wonder how, when they had eaten each other's teeth, they continued to chew, or, having eaten each other's stomach, how—

Nevertheless—

One easily finds a parallel to the historic engagement of the cats in the story of famous law suit begun some years ago by two Missouri farmers.

The difficulty began over the payment of part of the cost of a division fence, only a few dollars being involved. That was twelve years ago. Today the farmers are still fighting each other in the courts. As the lawyers have prospered the farmers have waned. One has lost his farm and the other is heavily involved by mortgages.

Two politicians disagree over the two society women fall out about the children, or the chickens, or what not. They wage mimic warfare. They call each other names. Husbands are involved. The neighborhood and the police courts know about the row. Kilkenney cats again!

Two neighbor women fall out about the children, or the chickens, or what not. They wage mimic warfare. They call each other names. Husbands are involved. The neighborhood and the police courts know about the row.

The cats are at it!

Or two society women disagree over some matter of petty precedence. They set out to kill each other socially. They resort to slander. Each injures the other because there are some who believe the whispered words of malice and reputations are tarnished or ruined.

Eating each other up!

There are fighting arenas other than Kilkenney.

SERIES "D"

Another Money Saving Opportunity Offered to the Citizens of Seymour And Jackson County.

If you believe in saving money regularly and placing these weekly savings where they will draw interest from the time they are laid away, it will pay you to take stock in the new Series "D" of the Co-Operative Building and Loan Association which will be opened Monday, October 7.

This Association is one of the substantial business concerns of our county. It has enabled hundreds of our people to own their own homes by easy payment and it has helped hundreds to save and invest in business or other enterprises. In his recent examination, the building and loan examiner of the State of Indiana found the Co-Operative to be one of the best managed associations in the state.

To become a stockholder you subscribe for as many shares as you wish to carry, the membership fee being 25c per share which is paid only once. The dues are 25c per week per share, thus encouraging the habit of saving regularly and placing these savings where they will earn dividends until they amount to $100 per share. No premium is charged for loans and the money is loaned on first mortgage on real estate in Jackson county or on ninety per cent. of the value of the stockholder's pass book, so that there is the best security possible for the investments made by the stockholders.

Take some stock in the new series and begin the habit of regular saving. You will find your money accumulating faster than you think.

See the secretary, Thomas J. Clark, Opera House Block, for full particulars.

W. R. Day introduced a resolution providing that no persons shall build a fire upon any concrete or brick streets in the city. The second section provides that any person violating the ordinance shall be fined not less than $1 and not more than $100. It was moved to suspend the rules and place it upon second reading, but Taskey voted in the negative so that the ordinance will not come up until the next meeting.

A resolution accepting the improvement on North Ewing street and ordering the engineer to prepare the primary assessment roll was passed. The engineer reported that the work was satisfactory with the exception of a few places which could be easily repaired.

The primary assessment rolls of the improvements on South Walnut and North Chestnut streets were then taken up. The assessment roll for North Chestnut street was approved and Davison introduced a resolution providing that the same be placed on file in the office of the city clerk and that it be properly advertised providing that remonstrances, if any, would be heard at the council meeting on October 10. The assessment roll showed the property owners' part of the improvement amounted to $5,956.75 while the city's part is $1,504.12, making a total of $7,460.87 due the contractors. The prima facie assessment roll for the South Walnut street improvement was then read and was approved by a resolution introduced by W. R. Day. It was ordered that the assessment roll be placed on file in the office of the city clerk, and that remonstrances, if any, be heard on the evening of October 10.

There seems to be some question as to who is required to pay for the intersection at Walnut and Brown streets. At that intersection there is an offset in the street in such a manner that the intersection comes directly in front of the property of Mrs. J. H. Droege and Mrs. Carrie Fodermark. The ordinance provided only for the improvement of Walnut street and as these properties face on Brown street some of the councilmen believed that the city should pay for the intersection. At a meeting sometime ago the question was taken up and was practically decided in that way. In the report of the city engineer he placed an assessment upon the two properties facing on Brown, but arranged his figures in such a way that they could be changed according to the desire of the council so the total would not be affected. Davison said that in as much as the ordinance called only for the improvement of Walnut street, he did not believe that the property could be assessed and moved that the assessments against the two properties be charged to the city. His motion was carried by a vote of four to three.

According to the figures of the city engineer the improvement on Walnut street will cost the city $4,107.13 and the property owners $11,714.37 making a total of $15,821.50 to the contractors. The assessment roll on South Walnut street is as follows although some of the totals may be changed slightly when the figures are verified.

Among the bills filed was a claim from Ewing Shields, contractor for the South Walnut street improvement, for $71.33 interest. He explained that the law provides that the primary assessment roll shall be prepared as soon as the work is completed, but that there has been some delay, and the interest at six per cent. upon $15,821.50, the amount on the contract, was $71.33. The bill was referred to the board of works. A claim was also presented by John Grime for $2.65 for plumbing. The council considered this too large and the bill was also referred to the board of works.

FRUIT FRITTERS.

No daintier dish can be served than a well made fruit fritter. Almost any sort of fruit may be used for the purpose, and there is not a great deal of variation in the styles of batter in which the slices of fruit are dipped.

One essential for the appreciation of fruit fritters is that they must be served hot and with a nice frosting of powdered sugar.

Served With Jelly.

Banana Fritters.—Peel and quarter some good sized firm bananas. Pour on them a few spoonfuls of lemon juice and some sugar and let stand an hour. Meanwhile, make a stiff batter with three eggs, a pint of milk and flour to mix it to the right consistency, stirring in a teaspoonful of baking powder. Dip the quartered fruit in this and fry at once in hot fat, drain and serve. Dust with powdered sugar and serve with bits of currant jelly.

Delicately Flavored.

Peach Fritters.—Take about a dozen peaches. Stir them into a batter made by beating together three beaten eggs, a cupful of milk, a pinch of salt and a cupful of flour. Drop this mixture by the spoonful into deep boiling fat. When the fritters are of a golden brown color, drain and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Serve hot.

Golden Fritters.

Orange Fritters.—Prepare a batter with a cupful of milk, two well beaten eggs, two ounces of butter, a pinch of salt and one-half pound of flour, sifted with one teaspoonful of baking powder. Peel the oranges and quarter, removing all white skin. Mix the quartered orange with the batter and drop by spoonfuls in boiling olive oil, having a section of the orange in each spoonful. Fry to a golden brown, drain on paper and roll in powdered sugar.

Tart and Tasty.

Apple Fritters.—Take the yolks of two eggs and beat well with a table spoonful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Heat a cup of milk and pour it slowly into the eggs, stirring constantly. Sift two teaspoonsfuls of baking powder with two cups of flour and beat into the mixture and then add the beaten whites of the eggs whipped to a stiff froth. Have four good sized tart apples sliced thin and stir into the batter. Dip large spoonfuls into deep, hot fat and fry a nice brown. Serve with powdered sugar.

of the city council are in favor of cutting the appropriations closer than they were the last year especially if the bonds are authorized. They point out that if the appropriations are larger and a considerable sum is allotted to each department, there would be a greater tendency to spend money more liberally and freely than if the appropriations were smaller. In that case only the necessities would be purchased and the council would be compelled to make each dollar count.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson XII. September 29.

For Individual Review of the Quarter

LESSON I.—Malignant unbelief, Mark III, 20-35. Golden Text, John iii, 19. "This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil." It seems to me that the talk against Christ in our day on the part of many religious people is as bad as was that of the scribes in this lesson. May the word and the will of God be so dear to us that we shall be to Him all that He desires.

LESSON II.—The seed in the four kinds of soil, Mark iv, 1-20. Golden Text, Jas. i, 21. "Receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls." To know God is life. He reveals Himself by His word, and Jesus Christ is the Living Word, between whom and the written word there is the most perfect agreement. Receiving Him we become children of God, the children of the kingdom, for which we wait.

LESSON III.—The growth of the kingdom, Mark iv, 26-32; Matt. xiii, 33. Golden Text, Matt. vi, 10. "Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." The title of this lesson is unfortunate, as the kingdom has not yet begun and therefore cannot be growing. In all His parables about the kingdom we must remember His saying, "The mystery of the kingdom of God." (Mark iv, 11.) The church, which is His body, is the mystery which is now growing.

LESSON IV.—The wheat and the tares, Matt. xiii, 24-30, 36-43. Golden Text, Matt. xiii, 30. "Gather ye together first the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn." Since the harvest is the end of this age and the devil keeps at work till then, it should be clear to all who believe that the kingdom cannot come in this age. First the church is taken, then the age runs on till He shall come to close it.

LESSON V.—The worth of the kingdom, Matt. xiii, 44-53. Golden Text, Matt. vi, 33. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." The parables of the tares and the pearl set forth the preciousness of Israel and the church to Him who gave up all for their sakes, for they will be the heavenly and earthly centers of His kingdom.

LESSON VI.—A troubled sea and a troubled soul, Mark iv, 35 to v, 20. Golden Text, Ps. xli, 1, 2 (R. V.), "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." See a weary man untroubled, peacefully sleeping in the midst of great trouble. See Him mightier than the storm or than a legion of demons, for He is as truly God as man, and all things shall yet be subject to Him.

LESSON VII.—The Ruler's daughter, Mark v, 21-43. Golden Text, Mark v, 41. "And He took the damsel by the hand and said unto her, Talitha, cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise." Twelve years of life developing, suddenly ended, but restored; twelve years of life wasting away suddenly made whole, for in Him is life. He is the life and the resurrection.

LESSON VIII.—The visit to Nazareth, Luke iv, 16-30. Golden Text, John i, 11 (R. V.), "He came unto His own, and they that were His own received Him not." Both this and the later visit to Nazareth (Mark vi, 1-6) resulted in their refusing Him, because they thought they knew Him too well to receive Him as the Messiah. Some one has said that they might have known Him better if they had not known Him so well.

LESSON IX.—The death of John the Baptist, Mark vi, 14-29. Golden Text, Rev. ii, 10 (R. V.), "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life." To my mind the story of John is, from the human side, in many respects one of the saddest in the Bible. A great man in the sight of the Lord, foretold centuries before he was born, filled with the Spirit from his birth, honored to hear the voice of God and baptize Jesus, yet killed to please Herodias.

LESSON X.—The mission of the twelve, Matt. ix, 35; x, 15. Golden Text, Matt. x, 40. "He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth Him that sent me." Another perplexing lesson to those who see only the earth side. Sent forth with blessing only for Israel, to be bestowed freely, promised hatred and persecution and probably death. Yet we know that "As for God, His way is perfect." (Ps. xviii, 30.)

LESSON XI.—Judgment and mercy, Matt. xi, 20-30. Golden Text, Matt. xi, 28. "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matt. xi:28.

(10.) Verses 37-38.—What can the churches do and we as individuals more than we are doing to bring about the salvation of the world?

Sept. 15. Judgment and Mercy. Matt. xi:20-30. Golden Text—Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. xi:28.

(11.) Verses 28-30.—What is the nature of the rest which Jesus gives?

Sept. 22. The Feeding of the Five Thousand. Mark vi:30-44. Golden Text—Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life. John vi:35.

(12.) Verses 41-44.—By what means did five small loaves and two small fishes feed 5,000 men?

Lesson for Sunday, Oct. 6, 1912. Jesus Walking on the Sea. Mark vi:45-56.

Sept. 8. The Mission of the Twelve. Matt. ix:35-x:15; x:40-xi:1. Golden Text—He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Matt. x:40.

(10.) Verses 37-38.—What can the churches do and we as individuals more than we are doing to bring about the salvation of the world?

IMMEDIATE EFFECT OF GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY IS SOON REALIZED.

According to my experience I do not consider there is anything to equal Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root for kidney affection. Twice it relieved me when I was completely helpless.

The last time I was traveling in Texas, when my kidneys became affected, and for ten days I suffered excruciating pain, accompanied with severe chills. Several years previous, having been relieved of a similar attack, I naturally sought relief as before, from Swamp-Root.

Minister Weitzel stated that there was great rejoicing in Granada and in Managua, the capital, when the news of the surrender was received. He described the conditions found in Granada as most distressing and the inhabitants of the city in a most pitiable situation. Food supplies donated by the American Red Cross are being distributed, together with other supplies brought from Managua by the American forces. The marines and bluejackets are practically running the city, feeding the people maintaining order and also operating the trains on the railroads and the steamers on the lake. It is presumed that the numerous prisoners confined and tortured by Mena's men have been released.

It is believed now that nothing remains but to get Mena out of the country, restore order and get the people back to their customary ways of life, turn over the railroad and other property to their private owners and the Nicaraguan government, and then arrange for an open and free election under the supervision of the American forces.

General Zeledon, former minister of war under the Zelaya regime and Mena's chief ally in the revolt, is still in the field, so far as is known here.

It is expected that he will profit by Mena's example and surrender himself to the American commander, or else flee to Nicaragua.

It is understood here that Admiral Southerland has promised Mena he shall be permitted to leave the country. Should it develop, however, that Admiral Southerland has not pledged his word to Mena on this point, it is possible that the rebel leader will be turned over to the Nicaraguan government. Should this be done, Mena's death is certain.

The opinion here, however, is that the United States government could hardly stand by and see Mena killed no matter how it may be thought that he deserved such punishment.

SEYMOUR, BROWNSTOWN and CROTHERSVILLE
AND EVERY TOWNSHIP IN JACKSON COUNTY

This is the first complete Directory ever issued for all of Jackson county including the city of Seymour, the incorporated towns of Brownstown and Crothersville, and every township in the county.

The Directory was compiled under the direction of the Seymour Republican by canvassers who made a house to house visit of every home in the county, securing at first hand the names and information.

The Directory contains 368 pages and is substantially bound in cloth.

The Directory gives the occupation and the postoffice address of every person in Jackson county.

The Directory indicates all real estate owners by a star after the name, and in the township lists it gives the number of acres owned by every farmer in the county.

The Directory lists a man and his wife in the same line so that family relationships are easily seen.

The Directory is completely indexed on Page 2, and explanatory notes indicate all the details used in compiling it.

The Directory will be useful to you in a score of different ways through the vast amount of detailed information which it gives.

The Directory will furnish you information about the citizens of the county, and will aid you in making up any kind of a list of names and in securing addresses for use in connection with your business.

from farming. I have always made money on this fine 320-acre farm, and have taken good care of it. I don't want to rent it, so have decided to sell. It is 3½ miles from Benkelman, on main road, with R. F. D. and telephone. 5 room house; big new barn; nice young orchard, fenced with woven wire; shade trees in yard. All but 60 acres tillable. Top soil 2 feet deep. Finest neighbors in the world—all well-to-do folks. I want $40 an acre. (Some farms no better sold for $50.) That is the least dollar that will buy it. That is $12,800 and I want all cash. If you can't pay all cash, and need some time, my agent says he can arrange a $5000 five year loan. Write him for further particulars and photographs. He is Henry G. Matteson, Lock Box 986 Benkelman, Nebraska. This is a good farm and will make you a nice home.

ATLANTIC RACE

New Proposed to Prepare a Contest For Motor Boats.

London, Sept. 27.—Captain Thomas Fleming Day and his colleagues, who have just returned from St. Petersburg, where they went in the motor boat Detroit, in which they crossed the Atlantic, will sail for New York tomorrow. Captain Day intends to arrange an international motor boat race from New York to Paris. Sir Thomas Lipton has agreed to build a motor boat to enter this race, provided there are three other entrants.

Rejected State-Wide Primaries.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The Republican state convention adjourned at 10:40 last night until 10 o'clock this morning. When it reconvened today the fight for the gubernatorial nomination was still up in the air. The platform was adopted just as it came from the committee. The state-wide primaries proposition was rejected.

Old papers, good for a score of uses about the house, for sale cheap, at the Republican office.

CANDIDATES MEET

President Taft and Governor Wilson Get Together at Boston.

Boston, Sept. 27.—President Taft and Governor Wilson, rival candidates for the presidency, met and shook hands cordially last night in the president's apartment in the Copley Plaza hotel in this city. The meeting was informal and lasted only a few minutes. The Democratic candidate arrived at the hotel from Fall River. When he arrived the president was in the banquet hall, where he had just completed his speech to the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce. Governor Foss soon learned that Governor Wilson was in the hotel and at once made arrangements to have Mr. Wilson meet the president.

The meeting was private. The president, Governor Wilson, Governor Foss and a few members of the president's party were the only persons present. Mr. Taft and Governor Wilson shook hands cordially and exchanged a few words. In less than three minutes the meeting was over and Governor Wilson left the president's apartment and went to his own room to go to bed.

IRON WORKERS' DEFENSE FUND

No Lack of Money to Fight Dynamite Cases.

READY FOR THE COMING TRIAL

It is Learned That the Treasury of the International Association Has Accumulated No Less Than $100,000 Against the Time of the Big Struggle That Is About Due in the Federal Court at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Sept. 27.—That the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers now has a defense fund of approximately $100,000 for use in fighting the dynamite conspiracy case, has been learned, although Frank M. Ryan, president of the union, refuses to give out any figures or to discuss the financial condition of the union. H. S. Hockin, secretary-treasurer, also has refused to talk concerning the amount of money on hand, but has said there would be "plenty."

A special assessment of $2 a month on each member of the union has been running for four months. As there are about 10,000 members of the union, this should raise $20,000 a month in addition to the usual and ordinary revenues raised for maintenance of the union.

The union had something like $32,000 in its treasury when the dynamite troubles started, about eighteen months ago. Since October last there have been special assessments every month for defense purposes.

"That is an affair of the officers of this union," said President Frank M. Ryan, when asked how much money had been raised for the defense. "Why don't you ask the Erectors' association how much money it has and how much it has spent?"

Reports received from all over the country show that the work of raising a defense fund has been in progress in many cities. In a large number of the cities in which one or two defendants live, there have been union balls and other entertainments given to assist in the work of raising cash. The funds thus obtained, it is understood, have been raised principally for the use of defendants living in those particular cities.

SUICIDE PACT

Apparent Agreement Between These Two to End Lives.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 27.—William S. Johnson, thirty-one years old, and Mrs. Harriet Wyman, aged thirty, wife of Roy C. Wyman, killed themselves by drinking carbolic acid at the home of the Wymans. The belief prevails that the double tragedy was the result of a suicide pact.

Johnson was the son of Walter Johnson, one of the best-known men of Richmond, and was associated with his father in the stone business. The Johnson and Wyman families were close friends. Johnson went to the Wyman home and appeared downhearted. He threatened to end his life and his actions were so strange that Wyman left the house and went to the Johnson home and informed Mrs. Johnson of her husband's despondency. Wyman asked Mrs. Johnson to return with him to his home and endeavor to calm her husband. Mrs. Johnson did so and the two sat for some time talking in the sitting room. Johnson suddenly left the room and walked into the kitchen, followed by Mrs. Wyman. They returned in a minute, neither indicating that anything was wrong. A minute later both collapsed, and they died soon after. An investigation proved that Johnson and Mrs. Wyman, on entering the kitchen, poured carbolic acid into a cup and divided the poison.

Hoosier Aviator Falls.

North Manchester, Ind., Sept. 27.—B. Russell Shaw of Indianapolis, the aviator who was making exhibition flights at the North Manchester fair this week, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon when he was dashed to the ground from his machine when the engine choked at a height estimated at about 100 feet. When picked up Shaw was bleeding from the nostrils and ears, and it is feared he was internally injured. One arm was broken and he was fearfully cut about the face and body.

Shot Former Wife's Husband.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 27.—Frank Todd, forty years old, is dying at the Bloomington hospital, and Frank Hovious, who shot him about 11 o'clock last night, is being held by the police, awaiting the outcome of Todd's injuries. The shooting occurred at the home of Todd on North Grant street, and Mrs. Todd, who was divorced from Hovious last May, was a witness to the affray.

Murder Ends Political Quarrel.

Boy Played With Matches.

Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me that I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Do you see how the square cross-rods at top of head and foot beautify this bed? Imagine this design with round tubing in those positions. Would not the result be "ordinary" and monotonous?

It is just such details of clever and artistic designing that have made our steel beds so popular. And the very large corner posts with brass caps all combine to make this an unusually artistic bed.

Moreover this bed is as good as it looks. Because it is made of drawn steel tubing, very light in weight—extremely strong.

A child can move this bed with the greatest ease. Come in and see this bed. Then you will realize how good it is.

Estrangement Which It Was Thought Might Be Reconciled Following Mrs. Sickles' Recent Relief of the Old General's Financial Embarrassment, Now Apparently Is More Firmly Fixed Than Ever.

New York, Sept. 27.—Over his signature, General Daniel E. Sickles whose wife raised $8,200 by pawned her jewels with which to keep a judgment against the general from forcing a sale of his household possessions, has issued a statement in which he makes a bitter attack upon his wife for stories which have appeared in the newspapers which came from Mrs. Sickles and their son, Stanton Sickles.

Stanton Sickles, in speaking for his mother, made another attack upon his father, in which he gave names and dates of the persons who caused the separation of his parents. The general in his statement says that misrepresentations made in the newspapers regarding his relations with his wife have made such an unfavorable impression upon his comrades and friends that he cannot remain silent any longer.

He declares that the jewels pawned by his wife to pay the judgment obtained against him belong to him and that they were in the possession of his mother and appropriated by his wife in 1876, after the decease of his mother in Madrid, and that he gave them to her. He further declares his wife has ample means and has in her possession more than $20,000 worth of silver plate belonging to him.

"I have not lived with Mrs. S." he adds, "since 1880, for good and sufficient reasons which I have heretofore borne, and decline now, to disclose.

"When I separated from my wife in 1880 I was not even acquainted with my friend, Miss Eleanor Earle Wilmerding, whose name has been recently mentioned as the cause of the separation, for whom I have the highest esteem. Neither Miss Wilmerding nor any other of my friends has taken any part whatever in connection with my financial affairs, nor the present situation of my domestic affairs."

Charges Lack of Chivalry.

Mrs. Sickles, when seen in reference to the general's statement, said: "It is terrible. It shows such a lack of chivalry. It is true that I have some of his things, but they are not of value."

Stanton Sickles' answer was an attack on General Sickles. He said that the statement given out by his father made it necessary for him to disclose the name of the person responsible for the separation of his father and mother. She is now living in New York. She was out when a reporter called, and so could not answer the intimation that Stanton Sickles made.

The general's son went on to say that he had possession of the correspondence between his father and the woman mentioned. Mr. Sickles then gave the details of the liaison which he alleges his father had, and then came to a mention of Miss Wilmerding's name.

Miss Wilmerding speculates in Wall street. She had no fortune of any kind of her own. My father's present financial difficulties have been brought about by Miss Wilmerding's speculating in Wall street.
